

Weaverville.com 2009 Media Kit

The Weaverville.com Audience

Weaverville and its surrounding areas are among the most desirable vacation and retirement locations in the country.

The region is graced with countless natural wonders and exciting communities of artists and craftspeople along with world-class attractions. Together they draw more than three million visitors and vacationers who add approximately one billion dollars to the regional economy every year.

As important, publications like Frommer's, Forbes, Southern Living and Barron's rate the area time and again as in the top 25 and often in the Top 10 for travel and retirement.

Your Visitors

The Internet audience for Weaverville.com spans all age groups from young singles seeking outdoor adventure and the seemingly endless festival scene, to vibrant families looking for sights and activities that delight, to our active retirees who place a premium on the peace and quiet of these hills.

What they share is a level of affluence and sophistication for the accommodations, recreation, dining and seasonal celebrations offered throughout the area.

Weaverville.com – Your Marketing Site
